Four-Year Old Boy Dies; 30 Homes Destroyed; Emergency Is Declared

By SAM HANCOCK
United Press Staff Correspondent
MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (AP) — At least 24 persons remained hospitalized today, two of them in critical condition, with injuries suffered in this city's million-dollar tornado.

The first fatality reported from Mount Vernon was 4-year-old Brad Copple, who was one of the critically injured. The boy died in a hospital late this morning of tornado injuries and his mother, Roberta, who also was hospitalized, was not told of his death.

The storm, part of a three-state tornado rampage, ripped into north and west side residential districts late Wednesday, destroying at least 30 homes and damaging about 100 others.

Other tornadoes in Illinois and Missouri killed at least 10 persons, 8 of them in Murphysboro, and injured more than 200 persons.

A total of 46 persons were admitted to Mount Vernon's three hospitals, but 22 of them were released Wednesday night after treatment.

Million Dollar Damage

Listed in critical condition at Jefferson Memorial Hospital were Mrs. Pearl Steivers, Mount Vernon, and I. W. Morgan, of nearby Dix. In serious condition were Mrs. Paul Warren, 30; Bradley Copple, 4; Bernice Backenstow, 33, and Joe Martin, age unknown, all of Mount Vernon.

Three twisters were believed to have hit the city although only one funnel cloud was observed.

Mayor Virgil Bailey estimated damage at one million dollars. He said a northwest side subdivision was hardest hit, with at least 15 homes destroyed or damaged. A school building and an old persons home also were damaged.

Armed guards from Centralia, Salem and Mount Vernon patrolled the stricken areas throughout the night to prevent looting. Authorities said two unidentified high school boys were arrested after the storm for looting.

Bailey declared a state of emergency in the city.

Mount Vernon was fortunate in that no fires were reported. Police continued guard into the daylight hours, and state police still were in evidence directing traffic.

Motorists noted that the storm had flattened billboards along U. S. 460 and Ill. 37 near the city. Traffic was heavy on Ill. 37 today. On the North Salem Road, the winds sliced the top story from a two-story house as neatly as if it had been sawed, and deposited it about 100 feet away.

Communications and power lines were knocked out by the storm and details of the disaster were relayed to Chicago's UP office by mobile short wave from United Press Correspondent Sam Hancock at Mount Vernon.

Toll Calls Filtered Through Harrisburg Telephone Office

Millard F. Lynch, Harrisburg district manager of the General Telephone Company of Illinois, today said that service was normal here except for ever-increasing toll calls being filtered through here because lines are down in storm areas.

"The only way calls from the Murphysboro - Carbondale area can be made is through Harrisburg," he stated, adding that a bottleneck has been created.

"There was a one-hour delay on calls here at 10 a. m.," he said. "If the situation gets any worse we may have to go on an emergency basis."

Because of the communications condition, the United Press set up temporary headquarters in The Daily Register office today.

Storm Damage Shown at Murphysboro

NATIONAL GUARDSMEN AND STATE TROOPERS are on duty in Murphysboro today guarding the storm damaged areas and directing the heavy stream of traffic. Guardsmen allowed no one to enter the devastated areas without signed passes from the County Sheriff. And the sheriff was carefully screening all applicants for passes. Twisters Hit Springerton Farming Areas

CARMI, Ill. — Twisters struck farm areas around Springerton, 14 miles northwest of Carmi, in the Beavers Creek church area six miles northwest of Enfield and in Hamilton county Wednesday afternoon.

Injured persons were brought to the Carmi hospital.

Injured near Springerton were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Peters, Mrs. Alex Duckworth and a Mrs. Shaw.

The Duckworth house was blown off its foundation and a large barn on the farm was destroyed. The McKay home in the area was leveled, as was Floyd Ward's house. The Stant Burris house was twisted and jerked off its foundation and two large barns and a grain crib were demolished.

Numerous houses were twisted off foundations and barns torn apart in Hamilton county. Law authorities and neighbors found victims wandering in open fields, many of them blown there, others fleeing to open spaces. Injured and shocked were carried from muddy fields.

In the Beaver Creek church area, the church and three dwellings were destroyed and ten other homes were blown off foundations.

Severe property damage was reported in the Jacobs Camp area. All cottages were overturned and one burned.

135 Persons Injured In City; National Guard Sent Into Stricken Area

By SAM HANCOCK
United Press Staff Correspondent
MURPHYSBORO, Ill. (AP) — A wave of killer tornadoes rolled across parts of Missouri and southern Illinois toward Indiana Wednesday night, and rescue workers today reported a rising toll of death and damage.

At least 13 persons were killed, according to reports from city and town officials and the Illinois National Guard in the stricken area. More than 200 were injured.

Cong. Kenneth J. Gray West Frankfort, today called the President and federal Civil Defense Administration and asked that the Murphysboro area be declared a disaster area and that federal funds be sent there.

Damage here still was difficult to estimate. At Mount Vernon, Mayor Virgil T. Bailey estimated damage at one million dollars.

Nine of the dead here were identified, four of them in one family. Gen. Edmund O'Neill of the Illinois adjutant general's office reported at Springfield that two more unidentified dead were found today. The Illinois National Guard's 30th Infantry headquarters at Carbondale sent 50 officers and men into the Murphysboro area. The town was without power.

The guard said 135 persons were injured and two were missing.

The first fatality reported from Mount Vernon was 4-year-old Brad Copple. The boy died in a hospital late this morning of tornado injuries and his mother, Roberta, who also was hospitalized, was not told of his death.

Expect More Victims

O'Neill said the little town of Gormham, 447 population, was "completely wiped out." Jackson County deputies were searching for dead and injured. He reported the town of Sand Ridge was also damaged badly.

Sheriff Howard Cheatham said

15 to 20 houses were levelled and two persons injured along the Shoal Creek road, three miles southwest of Murphysboro.

Mayor Joe Williams, in reporting on the casualties, said that more than 150 were injured here, although the guard put the total at 135.

St. Andrew's Hospital admitted 9 of the most seriously injured, and 42 other dazed and walking injured received first aid treatment in the hospital gymnasium. Nuns at the hospital hand-stoked furnaces. Nineteen other seriously injured persons were sent to Decatur, Ill., for treatment.

Police Radio Gets Storm Messages; Ambulances Sent to Mount Vernon

First word of yesterday's Illinois tornadoes reached Harrisburg around 4:30 p. m. when Chester Estes, fireman on duty at the city hall, received a message from state police headquarters at Du Quoin.

"Mt. Vernon has been hit hard by a tornado and all units getting this message are asked to dispatch ambulances and medical units to the city," the message said.

Estes called Mayor Claud Gibbons and soon an ambulance from each of the four funeral homes in Harrisburg was on the way.

"Doctors and nurses will be leaving for Mt. Vernon soon," said Ray Altmeir, Saline county Civil Defense director. "They're getting ready to leave now. I'm right now leaving for Mt. Vernon."

Messages Received

A short time later a call received here said the doctors and nurses would not be needed.

At the fire station about 6 p. m. Estes said:

"We've learned a James Carter was killed at Sunfield. His address was given as Du Quoin Route 3." Sunfield is on U. S. Route 51 four miles north of Du Quoin.

"We also heard a train was derailed at Rockwood." Rockwood is nine miles southeast of Chester.

"Tornadoes also have hit around Ava, Willisville, Steeleville, Du Bois and Waltonville," Estes continued. "We heard Route 127 north of Pinckneyville and Route 43 between Willisville (Perry county) and Ava (Jackson county) are closed because of debris on the roads."

Shortly after 7:15 a message was heard which said a bus was taking injured to the Logan school in Murphysboro and a message interrupted to say another storm had hit the Springfield area 14 miles northwest of Carmi, injuring several and causing extensive damage.

Reports from Murphysboro

There hadn't been much said about Murphysboro up until about 7:10, when reports started coming in fast.

John T. Gaskins, Louie Brantley Escape Injury

John Thad Gaskins and Louie Brantley of Harrisburg were in the midst of the tornado which hit Mt. Vernon Wednesday afternoon, and escaped probable serious injury by taking refuge under some heavy earth moving equipment.

While visiting the Ed Meyer Tractor Co. on the Salem highway north of Mt. Vernon, the two Harrisburg men and Mr. and Mrs. Meyer observed the first of the series of twisters as buildings and debris were carried through the air between the Meyer plant and Mt. Vernon.

The storm appearing to have subsided, the Harrisburg men were preparing to leave and were just outside the building when they heard and saw another twister coming directly at them.

Rushing to the rear of the Meyer building — a metal gunnest type structure, the Harrisburg men took refuge under a ditch digging machine while Mr. and Mrs. Meyer crawled under a large end loading diesel.

The twister struck the building almost immediately after they had taken refuge, tearing off the roof and doors and blowing debris in every direction.

"I just pulled my cap over my eyes to shield them, and held on for dear life," Mr. Gaskins said. "I'm sure there is an imprint in the metal because I gripped so hard," he said jokingly, but in elation because he came through safely.

He reported seeing a large tractor and trailer overturned in downtown Mt. Vernon, and some houses completely demolished. En route home, near Belle Rive, they were further endangered by pieces of metal roofing blowing from a barn when they stopped to remove a tree limb blocking them on the highway.

Don't Sell Our Industry Short

Some rather brutal comparisons are being made between the Soviet Union's advances in the military-scientific field and our seeming concentration on the output of chrome-trimmed, tail-finned automobiles.

In a good many ways, the harsh judgments pronounced upon us would seem to be deserved. We do indeed focus strongly on the lavish gadgets produced by our bountiful free economy.

But this concentration can be misleading. It should not blind us, or our free friends abroad, or anyone else in the world to the fact that we can produce what we want in very great numbers.

As of January 1 of the present year, there was in the United States one car for every 3.1 persons, and this does not include trucks and buses.

By contrast, the Soviet Union, with some 200 million people to our 170 million, had but one car for every 500 of its citizens.

Now, to be sure, Russia is not especially interested in putting a car in the hands of every Soviet family. It is concentrating its admittedly great industrial strength on building armament, and more factories capable of producing still more armament.

Nevertheless, the five to six million cars we turn out a year are more than a mark of our devotion to pleasure. They are a proof that we, too, have industrial might, despite well-advertised Soviet gains.

Further, they are evidence that we are to be feared when we turn our hand to making armament instead of automobiles. The bare statistics of car numbers are a warning which, taken together with hundreds of others, the men in the Kremlin can ill afford to misread.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Nixon Helps Promote Dinner
To Get Gaither Report Published; A Hint That Preventive War Might Be Necessary;
We Need To Spend $20 Billion
More On Defense In Five Years.

WASHINGTON. — An extremely hush-hush dinner was held at the home of William Foster, former undersecretary of defense, now chief sparkplug of Olin-Mathieson. It was held not so much in honor of Vice President Nixon, as reported, but was inspired by Nixon in order to pry loose the suppressed Gaither report.

This report, one of the most important in the history of the nation, concludes that the United States is on the way to becoming a second-class power because of the missile lag.

It also hints in guarded terms that the United States may have to desert its traditional policy of never going to war unless attacked first. The first attack in modern atomic war would be so massive, the report points out, that the country which makes the attack would probably win. And with the arms race going against the United States, the inference is: We can't afford to wait.

This, in blunt language, is preventive war.

Though the White House wants the report suppressed, Vice President Nixon and the business executives who wrote the report want the American people alerted regarding the danger facing the nation.

EDUCATE THE PUBLIC

Because of the importance of the report, this column has been able to secure the main highlights and they are published below:

1. The report strongly urges educating the public on national defense. The security of the nation, it points out, depends upon the understanding of the people.

2. The USSR probably will have operational ICBM's with megaton warheads by the end of 1959. By this time, Soviet military supremacy over the U. S. should be complete.

3. Russia was stronger than America following our disarmament after V-J Day, but we caught up and jumped ahead of Russia during the Korean War.
Recently we have dropped back.
Though our strength today is a bout parallel, the Soviet is swooping ahead so rapidly that it will be well ahead of us in the next 18 months.

4. The report urgently calls for stepping up the "initial operational capability" of our IREM's (intermediate-range missile) four times the present goal. Even more vital, it recommends increasing our planned ICBM (intercontinental missile) capability almost 10 times.

5. The report sketches a five-year program that would boost our defense spending almost $20 billion. It recommends a $3 billion increase in 1959, $4 billion in 1960, $5 billion in 1961, $4 billion in 1962, and $3 billion in 1963.

QUICK RETALIATION

6. The report declares solemnly that the fate of the U. S. and its population today rests on the Strategic Air Command. The report urgently recommends wider dispersal of SAC's striking power and quicker reaction to an alert. SAC can now get one-third of its bombers into the air within 15 minutes after an alert. The report urges increasing this capability by at least one half. It also calls for improving the warning networks.

7. The report recommends "hardening" of our bomber and missile bases either by building concrete shelters or by putting them underground.

Note—Assistant Defense Secretary Mansieff Sprague fought inside the committee for an even stronger report. This is significant since he is an administration man. He argued for a stronger recommendation on the question of letting the enemy hit us first, and, though not advocating preventive war, he made the point that if war appears inevitable some time in the future, it would be disastrous for us to wait until the Kremlin strikes the first blow.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

John L. Lewis won't hook up with the ousted Teamsters. He feels he has enough problems, what with competing fuels and shrinking coal production. Lewis also is planning another safety campaign in Congress to make every coal mine in the country subject to the Federal Mine Inspection Act. Several hundred smaller coal mines, with 15 or fewer employees, are still exempt. . . . Most farmers and Vice President Nixon may be against Agriculture Secretary Ezra Benson, but Benson's boss, President Eisenhower, is still 100 per cent for him. This was why Benson confidently told the press recently that he had no intention of resigning. White House intimates say Eisenhower—thanks in part to brother Milton—is closer to the farm secretary than any other member of his cabinet, so close that there is an unwritten rule among White House aides not to criticize Benson to the President.
... If Nixon ever gets into the White House it will be another story. He has already been maneuvering to get Benson out.

The American Medical Association is already lobbying against a bill, due to come up in Congress next year, which would provide hospitalization and surgical benefits to recipients of social security. AMA lobbyists are now making the rounds on Capitol Hill, even though most Congressmen won't be back till January. . . .
Budget Boss Percy Brundage is looking into the Agriculture Department, General Services Administration and Veterans Administration for most of the money to give to the missile program.
$300,000,000 will come out of farm price supports and soil bank payments; $300,000,000 by reducing purchases for the strategic stock pile; $300,000,000 by cutting down in V. A. hospitals and tightening the requirements for veterans benefits. Welfare products and the Labor Department will get nicked hard.

Fight Proposal To Shift U. S. 50

VINCENNES, Ind. —Representatives from 10 Indiana and Illinois cities along U. S. 50 formed a committee Tuesday night to fight a proposal which would shift the highway south to the Evansville area.

Gov. Harold W. Handley recently announced the state was considering a plan to move the Louisville-St. Louis highway from its line through Vincennes to a line
just north of Evansville.

Communities along the present route of the highway decided to fight the proposal.

The meeting elected Mayor Normal Bryden of Flora, Ill., as Illinois general chairman of the "St.
Louis, Vincennes and Louisville Interstate Highway Committee."

Predict High Unemployment Will Continue

WASHINGTON —A forecast of continued high unemployment for the first six months of 1958 today was tacked on a government report that U. S. industrial output slid again during November for the third straight month.

Thirteen prominent economists in New York predicted the number of jobless would rise during the first half of next year to an average of 3,600,000. The Labor Department said last week there were nearly 3,200,000 unemployed at present.

The jobless forecast by the National Industrial Conference Board said for the last half of 1958 the unemployment would average 3, 400,000.

It followed Monday's report by the Federal Reserve Board that its production index dropped last month to 139 per cent of the 1947-49 base—the lowest since the nationwide steel strike in July, 1956, when it touched 136 per cent.

The last time the index fell as low as 139 per cent under more normal conditions was in June and July, 1955, when it was exactly at that level.

The board said production was curtailed in November at both factories and mines. It reported reduced output at steel mills, aircraft factories, textiles, apparel, petroleum refining, television sets, furniture, soft coal, metal mining and crude oil pumping.

Past Presidents Parley Meets For Annual Christmas Party

The gracious home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Humm, 126 West Walnut street, was the scene of the Christmas meeting of the Past Presidents Parley of the American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday evening. The president is Mrs. Humm. The house was festive with Christmas arrangements on the mantel and tables throughout the house, but the most interesting, perhaps, was the angel topped newel post of the staircase and the cluster of greenery on the inside of the front door bearing the letters, "G'bye" for the amusement of departing guests.

The members had each prepared a dish which is her favorite and the resulting dinner was very good, indeed.

Gifts brought by the members were distributed by matching pieces of Christmas cards selected by each guest, to the matching piece of the card on a package. Everyone was pleased with her selection.

The program for the meeting was in the capable hands of Mrs. Madge Schwartz and following the reading of the Christmas story from the 2nd chapter of St. Luke, Mrs. Schwartz spoke of what Christmas means to the people in the "dark places," hospitals, mental institutions and the homes where children are not privileged to enjoy the happy visit of an indulgent Santa Claus. There was a challenging discussion among the group, after her program.

Franklin County Records Audit Still Incomplete

BENTON, Ill. (AP)—An auditing firm says an investigation of the books and records of the Franklin county treasurer will not be completed until Jan. 15.

A representative of the firm of Coker and Coker of Peoria reported to the Franklin county board of supervisors here Tuesday night.

State's Atty. Joseph Hickman, a Democrat, ordered the audit after a request by the Republican minority on the board.

The Republican members said there had been reports of alleged irregularities in the office of Treasurer Jess Britton, a Democrat.

Britton said there was nothing wrong with his books and that the Republicans were trying to smear him politically.

Britton has announced his candidacy for sheriff in the April primary.

The state song of New Mexico, "O Fair New Mexico," was written by Elizabeth Garrett, whose father, Sheriff Pat Garrett, shot and killed Billy the Kid.

The nation's first endowed school was opened in the Roxbury section of Boston in 1645 and was named the Roxbury Latin School. It is still in existence.

Support Wabash Valley Objectives

MOUNT CARMEL, Ill. (UP)—Oil, coal, farm and manufacturing interests have voiced support of the objectives of the Wabash Valley Assn.

An estimated 300 persons turned out here Tuesday night for a meeting of the association, including a score of mayors from Illinois and Indiana cities and three congressmen.

The association is seeking canalization of the Wabash River for industrial and recreational development and flood control.

Railroad interests voiced the only objection—on grounds that the project would be too costly to taxpayers.

Plans are going ahead for a giant rally next month at Terre Haute, Ind., at which the University of Illinois and Indiana and Purdue universities will report on surveys they have made of the Wabash Valley.

Scientist Dr. Urey Says Gaudy Cars are Signs of Decadence in America

CHICAGO (UP)—Dr. Harold C. Urey, noted pioneer in nuclear chemistry, contends that America is showing signs of decadence.

Urey, who won the Nobel Prize for his discovery of heavy water, made these other points in an interview:

—The nation's school system needs overhauling, and it must be done through the federal government.

—The missile program might not be lagging as it is if the government had not fired scientists J. Robert Oppenheimer and Edward U. Condon as security risks.

—The American people need a "blood, sweat and tears" lecture by a top government leader, but will get "nothing more than tooth-ing syrup" from President Eisenhower.

Urey said "tail fins and big gaudy cars" are signs of American decadence.

Two Brilliant Scientists

"These over-powered gas-eaters are an idiotic waste," he said. "Some day we'll wake up in a serious conflict with our left-hand friend behind the Iron Curtain and we won't be able to get oil out of the Middle East. Maybe then we'll regret the waste of our resources on useless horsepower."

"And just think of the money, materials and engineering talent that go into retooling for model changes to make last years car obsolete and hasten it to the junk pile."

Urey said Oppenheimer and Condon are "two of this country's most brilliant scientists." He said he knows Oppenheimer mostly by reputation, but he knows Condon "quite well, and there's no more honorable, upright man in the country."

"McCarthyism is dying," he said, "and the country can use men like Oppenheimer and Condon."

Overhaul School System

As for the schools, Urey said the nation's education budget "must be doubled."

"We need a thorough overhauling of the primary and secondary schools," he said, "and it can't be done except through the federal government because of the enormous number of hurdles in the way."

"A lot of people are suspicious of 'government meddling,' but what would the government do that would be so terrible? It might interfere with local pressure groups and people whose children have finished school and who want to cut education costs." Urey said the schools have suffered at the hands of "professional educators, most of whom didn't do too well in school themselves."

"A lot of them have little background in language, science, mathematics or literature," he said, "but they've got a lot of theories about education."

He said more emphasis must be put on grouping students so the brightest can move ahead.

Mountain Road

NORTH ADAMS, Mass. — (UP)—A toll road may be constructed over Massachusetts' highest mountain. The road, suggested as a tourist attraction, would run across 3,500-foot Mt. Greylock between Williamstown and Lanesboro. It would be about 15 miles long and would cost about 10 million dollars.

Pilot Prevents Major Tragedy in Losing Own Life

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—A jet pilot's quick action during the last seconds of his life possibly prevented a major tragedy in a take-off crash here Wednesday, according to Turner Air Force Base authorities.

An Air Force spokesman said 1st Lt. Donald F. Egen jettisoned his wingtip fuel tanks just before his F-100 fighter-bomber smashed through a fence, hit two parked cars and split in two against a utility pole. Egen was killed in the flaming smashup, along with a sergeant who owned one of the parked cars.

The sergeant's wife was critically hurt.

The wreckage came to rest 10 feet from an unoccupied hospital wing and within 100 feet of a ward containing a number of patients. An unidentified lineman leaped to safety from the utility pole.

The sergeant's wife, who was with him in the car, was so critically injured that the Air Force first reported she was dead. The couple's 11-year-old son was unhurt.

Lt. Steve Thompson, public information officer at the base, said if Egen had not cut the tanks loose "the fuel might have carried to the hospital."

Egen, 25, Brooklyn, N. Y., remained trapped in the wreckage while firefighters sprayed chemicals on the flames.

The other victim was identified as M. Sgt. Lemuel A. Mitchell, 46, of Baltimore, Md.

Mother of Mrs. Alex Cathcart and Mrs. John Hodge Dies in Hospital

Mrs. Marion Massa, 77, resident of Marion RFD 2, died in the Barnes hospital at St. Louis, Mo., Wednesday morning. She is survived by her daughters, Mrs. Alex Cathcart and Mrs. John Hodge, Harrisburg and Mrs. Lee Adams, Tulsa, Oklahoma, and her sister, Mrs. Ala May, Mulberry, Kansas. Mrs. Hodge is just arriving in California and will be unable to return for her mother's funeral.

The body will lie in state at the Turner funeral home and the funeral services will be held there at 2 p. m. Saturday. Rev. Olin Clarida of Marion will officiate and burial will be in the Sunset Lawn cemetery.

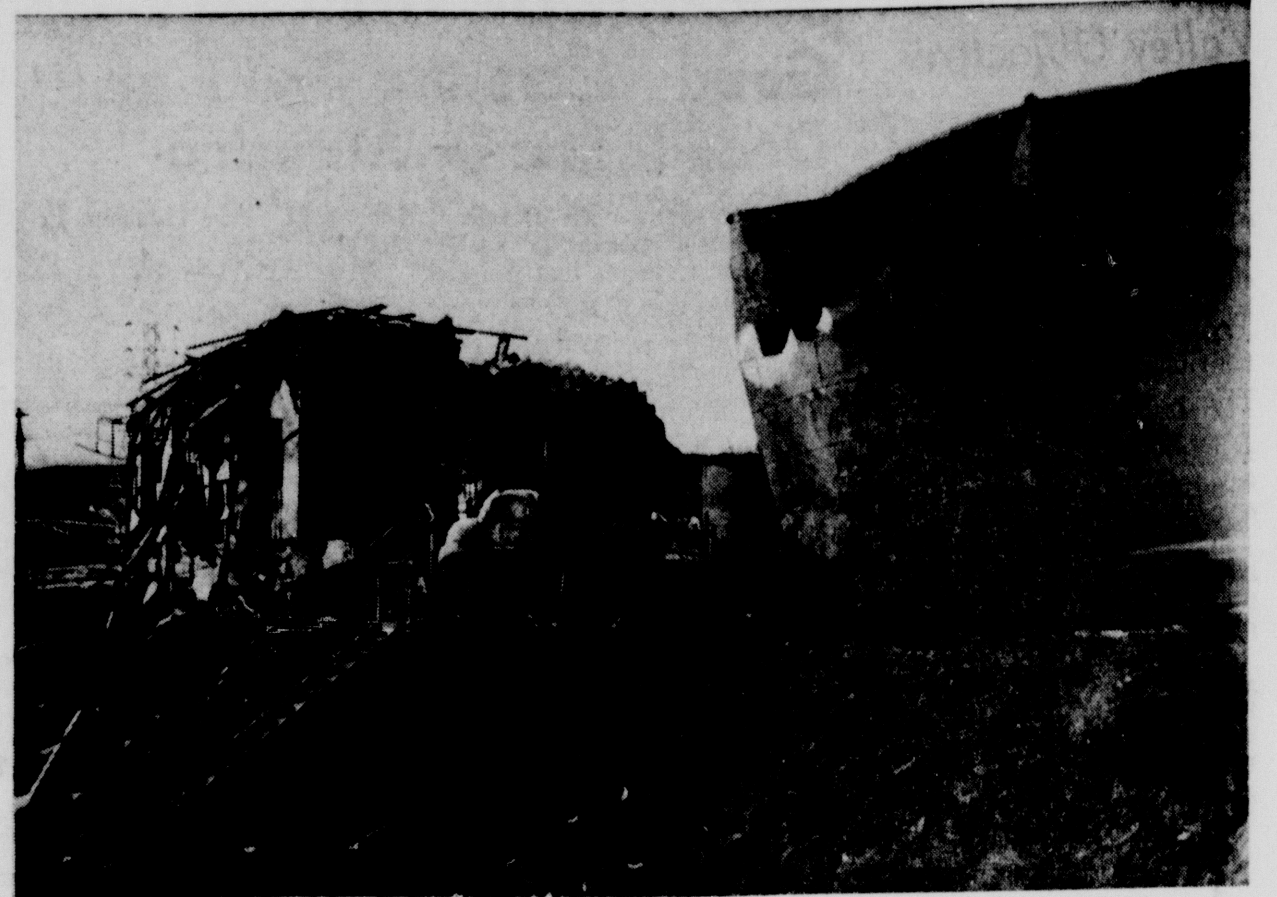

Mrs. Massa was a member of the Church of God church in Paul-ton.

J. W. Williams, 83, Found Dead In His Home Near Broughton

James W. (Jimmy) Williams, 83, well known farmer of RFD 2, Broughton, was found dead in his home at about 11 a. m. Wednesday, apparently of natural causes. Mr. Williams is survived by his sister, Mrs. Clara Mason, and his nephew, James Edward Mason, both of Princeton, Ky.

The funeral services were held in the Martin funeral home in Eldorado at 3 p. m. today with Rev. Oscar Smith officiating. Burial was in the North Fork cemetery near Broughton.

A LANDMARK—the huge gas storage tank near the Big Muddy River at the east approach to Murphysboro—collapsed and the brick shop building to the rear was badly damaged. The tank had a capacity of 100,000 cubic feet of natural gas, it was reported. The storm seemed to cut a path along the river, damaging the utilities facilities and destroying many homes in the area.

Police Radio Gets Storm Messages

said. Five Harrisburg fire fighters—Harvey Hicks, Norman Shewmake, Jerry Pry, Bob Mitchell Jr. and Jerry Blue—departed by auto for Murphysboro to help in any way they could.

"In the Mount Vernon area," a message began, "thirty-three are known injured—one critical. All homes involved were demolished. They were in the north and west part of town."

"Near Mt. Vernon in the Wal-tonville area," the same voice continued, "four farms and several out-buildings were badly damaged. Damage estimated at $100,000."

"At Centralia," came another message, "six houses were damaged. Three injured—two adults, one child—in Centralia hospital."

Then came the Murphysboro story:

"Numerous injuries at Murphysboro. No count as yet. Four known dead. Some in Carbondale hospital, others in Murphysboro hospital. Heavy property damage." Later a message said the tornado hit the south part of town.

"In the Gorham area," a message stated, "there are injuries reported. No count as yet." A later message said that a bus had taken the Gorham injured to Murphysboro. Gorham is about 15 miles southwest of Murphysboro.

Another report came in from Rockwood: "Two houses, three barns demolished. Ten houses major damage, several houses minor damage. Five railroad cars derailed."

Other messages:
"Carbondale police are taking all available flares of the Illinois Central railroad to Murphysboro, where they are badly needed."

"Two homes and outbuildings near St. Marie (near Newton in Jasper county) were severely damaged."

"A gas and oil auxiliary power unit is being taken to Logan school in Murphysboro."

Then came the report at 8:05 that power was partially destroyed in Mt. Vernon, but there was no power in Du Quoin, Pinckneyville and Murphysboro.

"The Harrisburg Salvation Army unit is reporting to Murphysboro to help out," a message said.

A television program nearby interrupted to say that Chaffee, Mo., had eight blocks wiped out, a shoe factory was demolished, that there were no bad injuries but many were cut by flying glass. The announcer said a baby was killed at Oak Ridge, Mo.

Police messages came telling various communities that their fire streets littered with debris.

Ironically, right in the middle of the most heavily damaged section stood a baby carriage containing a doll standing upright and intact.

John Scott, news director of radio station WMIX, watched the twister approach from the roof of a building.

"It came in as swirling black clouds," he said. "The clouds sucked up debris when it hit the northwest side of town and then it disappeared off to the northwest."

Other witnesses said the twisters sliced a path about 250 yards wide, skipping as much as three fourths of a block at a time before touching down again.

One twister destroyed the Block grade school less than one-half hour after the children had left for the day. An old persons home also was hit, but the patients were evacuated in time and no injuries were reported.

Most of the homeless victims were taken to the homes of relatives and friends. The Elks Club and the high school opened can- teens. Two gas mains were ruptured by the storm, but no fires occurred.

An Illinois Bell Telephone spokesman said six crews worked throughout the night to restore service to between 1,000 and 2,000 telephones knocked off the line. Two long distance cables, from St. Louis to Cairo and from St. Louis to Cincinnati, also were disrupted.

Although most of the city was without electricity right after the storm, power was restored to about 75 per cent of the city by midnight.

A mobile Red Cross blood mobile unit from St. Louis spent Wednesday collecting blood in Mount Vernon, but the tornado hit before the unit could return to St. Louis. As a result, the unit and its crew of nurses distributed the collected blood at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Fighting equipment was not needed at Murphysboro. All emergency power units, however, would be welcome, it was said.

tor's Hospital at nearby Carbondale.

Drinking water was being shipped into Murphysboro. The Red Cross and Salvation Army set up aid stations for the homeless.

Gov. William G. Stratton ordered all available police in southern Illinois to help guard against looting. The National Guard was mobilized in Murphysboro to patrol the stricken area.

The twisters, about 25 of them, swirled out of a collision of cold and unseasonably mild air in Missouri, marched across Illinois and petered out in Indiana.

One tornado churned down the main street of Chaffee, Mo., for eight blocks during the afternoon, unroofing a hotel and destroying a shoe factory. Two tornadoes hit McBride, Mo., one of them damaging a school building but leaving 32 children inside unhurt.

Others were reported at Chester, Boyd, and Wood River, Ill., and Rockville, Ind. The U. S. Weather Bureau sounded an all clear about 10 p. m., saying the threat of tornadoes was over but that the thunderstorm activity had moved into Tennessee.

Tornado funnels were reported near Rockville and Green-castle, Ind., but there were no confirmed reports that any hit the ground. Heavy rainfall swept portions of Indiana and may continue today, and wind gusts up to 45 miles an hour were reported by the U. S. Weather Bureau at Indianapolis, Lafayette, Terre Haute and Evansville Wednesday.

The Murphysboro twister was the second to hit the city within the memory of many residents. The March 18, 1925, tornado disaster, the worst in the nation's history, killed 225 persons in Murphysboro.

Children Tornado Victims Notify Santa Of Address Change

MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (AP)—May or Virgil Bailey pledged today that Christmas will be observed with rejoicing in this tornado-devastated community next week, "one way or another."

The children of William Beasley, whose home was swept off its foundations and reduced to rubble, could have told the mayor that. They reported they've already written Santa Claus, telling him they've moved to their aunt's home and please to bring their presents there.

HAND-PICKED for MURDER

THE STORY: Hugo Howell is drunk and quarrelsome again. The marriage of his son Wayne Howell before Wayne's 25th birthday has cost him half the legacy that would have come to Hugo had Wayne waited a month to marry Sandra Osterman. Wayne tells Jim Bennett, private investigator, he will make a generous provision for his father.

XV

Wayne broke off abruptly as he saw his father. "Excuse me," he said quietly and moved to meet him.

At that moment Otto came around the end of the bar carrying a tray bearing the chief's beer and my martini. As Howell passed the bartender, he lurched heavily against him. Otto stumbled and the tray clattered to the floor. Otto knelt and began to pick up pieces of broken glass. The thin waitress appeared with a towel to help him.

Howell moved to a stool beside Ambrose Lott, who raised his head stupidly and mumbled something. Howell pounded on the bar and shouted to Otto, "Get up off the floor and pour me a drink." The room was quiet again; everyone was watching the two men. The little manager came in from the lobby and gazed at the scene with a worried expression.

Beside me I heard the chief sigh. "I guess I'll have to run him in again," he said. "I'm sorry." "Don't be sorry," I told him. "You should have hustled him to the puke when he first came in." "I know, but since he's your client..."

"I disown him."

Wayne Howell stood uncertainly, looking at his father whose back was now to the room.

"Father," Wayne said quietly, "will you come outside? I want to talk to you."

"Talk to me?" Howell sneered. "What've you got to talk about?" Wayne didn't speak for a moment. Then he said in a low, controlled voice, "Please. You're making a scene. Come outside." He glanced around the room with an embarrassed expression.

"Oh, so that's it?" Howell said in an ugly voice. "Ashamed of your old man, huh? Too good for me, huh? Who sent you to college? Who paid for them clothes you got on? Answer me that, you snooty whelp?" He thrust his head forward, showing his yellow teeth. "And you rob me of the money I earned. That's the thanks I get!" He banged a fist on the bar.

"That's enough, Howell!" Chief of Police Campbell was on his feet and striding to the bar. He pushed Wayne gently aside. "If you and your friend want to leave peacefully, right now, I won't lock you up. But the next time you cause a disturbance I'll throw the book at you."

this, I tell you. Why didn't you do something sooner?"

"If they cause any more trouble, call me," the chief said shortly. He turned to Wayne Howell, who was standing silently by the bar. "I'm sorry, son," he said kindly. "Maybe he'll be in shape tomorrow so you can talk to him."

"I don't want to talk to him now," Wayne said evenly. "Not ever." He moved past the chief and went out the door to the street.

I had dinner, sirloin strip, French fries and salad and it was very good. When I'd finished I stopped at the bar to pay the check and said to the waitress, "What happened to Otto? Did he knock off early tonight?"

She nodded. "Once a week, on Thursday, he quits an hour early so he can get to Cleveland in time for night school."

I remembered what Otto had told me about studying to be an optometrist.

There were no elevators in the Harbor House; just two stairways to the upper floors. One led up from the bar, the other from the lobby, opposite the main entrance to the street. When I reached the second floor I started down the hall. My room was at the end. Hugo Howell's was four doors this side of mine. As I passed it, I saw that the door was half open.

I stopped, thinking that Howell had been too drunk to bother closing it and had just entered and flopped on the bed. I put my hand on the knob, but before pulling the door shut I poked my head inside the room.

It was dark, except for faint light from the street revealing Howell's bed. There was a figure on the bed covered by a sheet which had been pulled up to partially conceal the face. It was quiet in the room, too quiet. Hugo Howell should have been snoring boozily, or at least making the sound of breathing. I peered closer, saw a bright little gleam above the sheet. I stepped inside, closed the door quietly, crossed to the bed and bent over it.

The business end of an ice pick was buried three fourths of its deadly length in the body beneath the sheet.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service)

The blanket of white snow which people associate with Christmas is not a whitewash to temporarily cover the drab reality of the filth which sometimes lies in our paths. The white of the snow is symbolic of the cleanliness which everyone can enjoy if he presents himself at the altar of Him who was born many Christmases ago.

We must come in humility to the creche as did the shepherds and the Wise Men. We must become as little children in our faith. We need the rebirth about which Christ spoke.

This Christmas can be a lasting experience if we give ourselves to God as we give our gifts to friends and loved ones. We must lift our voice in repentance as we sing out the hymns of Christmas.

Camels are essentially animals of the arid deserts and have a great aversion to water, only with difficulty being persuaded to cross even the smallest stream.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

Next week another Christmas will be celebrated. It is a time for good will. Unfortunately, some persons will go about the pleasant task of spreading cheer in the wrong manner. "Christmas Cheer" to some means over partaking in alcoholic beverages.

The office Christmas party or the gathering of friends and relatives to celebrate the forthcoming holiday often results in high-way injuries or deaths to some of the celebrants. Often, too, innocent persons have their names listed on casualty tolls because of a Christmas party.

Injuries and deaths also are caused during this holiday season because pedestrian shoppers are not concentrating on their obligations when crossing streets. Their minds are on their shopping and not their crossing. Pedestrians would be wise to exercise more caution during the Christmas holiday season than they do at other times during the year...

Cairo Rainfall Tops 85 Years

CAIRO, Ill. (UP)—Cairo has had more rainfall this year than any time in the last 85 years.

Loren White, chief of the U. S. Weather Bureau here, said that to 6 a. m. today the city had a total of 70.76 inches of rainfall this year.

This exceeds the previous high of 70.40 inches in 1950 and is the highest since records have been kept starting in 1872.

Cairo had only 45.38 inches of rain in 1937, the year of the disastrous flood, but 15.45 inches that year came in the month of January.

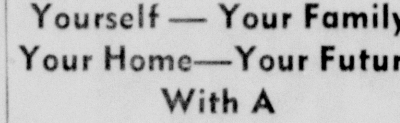

Romans are credited with first extensive use of lead, mostly for water pipes, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Ridgway Wins Equality Tourney With 87-52 Win Over Cave-in-Rock

Equality Sets Gym Record, 108-44, in Consolation Tilt

Ridgway successfully defended its Equality Invitational tourney championship Wednesday night by overwhelming Cave-in-Rock 87-52 in the title tilt.

In the consolation game Equality set a gymnasium record by beating Shawneetown 108-44.

Ridgway became the fifth school to take two Equality championships and the third school to win the title on successive years. Thompsonville first turned the trick in 1951 and 1952. Shawneetown took first honors in 1954 and 1955 and Ridgway now has the championship trophies for 1956 and 1957. Carrier Mills and Galatia also have two championships, but not on consecutive years.

Cave-in-Rock played a pressing game and at times bothered Ridgway, but the winning Eagles' superior height and control of the backboards more than overcome the Cave speed.

Cave-in-Rock held a 5-4 lead early in the game, but with 5:27 left to play in the opening quarter Ridgway went in front 6-5 and was never headed. By the end of the period the winners held a 17-5 advantage. From then on it was more or less a matter of time, as Ridgway held a scoring edge in each frame and added to its margin as the game progressed.

It was strictly a team effort, but once again Roger Suttner, the 6-10 1-2 pivot man, was top scorer, dunking in 30 points.

Switzer and B. Shore came thru for the Rockers with 20 and 16 respectively.

Three players, other than Suttner, hit in double figures for Ridgway—Clifford had 13, Crawford and Sanders 10 each.

Equality buried Shawneetown under a scoring avalanche, 108-44, in the consolation game. This was a new high for the Equality gymnasium.

Two other things stood out in this game—a total of 59 fouls were called, maybe not a record, but mighty high and Shawneetown finished the game with but four players.

Of the 59 fouls called, 35 were against Shawneetown. Players began to be whistled from the game early and with 5:30 to go in the final frame the fifth man left via fouls. With 3:47 to go the sixth man went to the bench, leaving just four Indians to try and hold off the rampaging host Equality Cardinals.

Harlin Barnett, who paced Equality with 27 points, hit the basket that put an even 100 points on the scoreboard and Mitchell had the honor of breaking the 100 mark.

Following the final game trophies were awarded to Ridgway and Cave-in-Rock and the game ball went to Equality.

Lakers Defeat Warriors, 108-102

By United Press

The Minneapolis Lakers weren't able to stop Neil Johnston but still managed to defeat the Philadelphia Warriors, 108-102, in the only National Basketball Association game played Wednesday night.

Johnston, former league scoring champion hoping to regain that crown, scored 30 points, including 11 in the first period.

But the Lakers, after trailing by 56-55 at halftime, went ahead to stay when Corky Devlin tallied a three-point play halfway through the third period. Vern Mikkelsen wound up as the Lakers' high scorer with 28 points.

The fourth-place Lakers still trail third-place Detroit by three games in the league's Western Division.

Salukis Face Three Games in Four-Day Period

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Facing Southwest Missouri, Northern Illinois, and Washburn University in a four-day period beginning Friday, the Southern Illinois University cagers this week drilled on defense.

SIU will open its three-games-in-four-days 'fare in a Fireman's Benefit game at Flora Friday against undefeated Southwest Missouri State College of Springfield, Mo. Southwest Missouri replaces Colorado State, the originally-scheduled foe, which last week cancelled a five-game tour of the South and Midwest because of a Louisiana ban on Negro athletes. (With one Negro on its varsity, Colorado State had three of its five road games with Louisiana teams and said that with out those games it would be financially unprofitable for them to play games with SIU and a team in Oklahoma.)

Southern hosts Northern Illinois at Carbondale Saturday in the Salukis' first Interstate Conference test. Next Monday SIU hosts Washburn University of Topeka, Kan. in a Little League Benefit game at the Marion (Ill.) High School gym.

Holding a 1-2 record for the season, Southern won its first game here Saturday, Dec. 14, tripping Missouri School of Mines, 68-59. Larry Whitlock, 6-5 forward from Mt. Vernon, was the hero for the Salukis as he topped both teams in scoring with 22 points and also grabbed 14 rebounds.

Marvin Jones, Southern's 6-3 center from East St. Louis, was second high with 15 points and 13 rebounds.

"We are still weak on defense and rebounding," said SIU Coach Lynn Holder, who predicts that SIU's offense will take care of itself if the defense and rebounding can be improved.

Holder plans to start the same "front line" in the encounters this week end with Whitlock and Seymour Bryson, Quincy, at forwards and Jones at center.

Holder further indicated that he may again try a type of two-plateau system with guards. Last Saturday he started Jim Lazenby, 5-11, Pinckneyville, and Sammy Duane, 6-2, Galatia, at guards, switching to Gene Sans, 5-10, Albion, and Dick Ruggles, 5-10, Quincy, Mass., at the opening of the second half. Lazenby and Duane are again slated to start this week end with Sans and Ruggles scheduled for considerable action.

Devine Named Football Coach At Missouri U.

COLUMBIA, Mo. — Dan Devine, a man who likes touchdowns, today looked to the long-range possibilities as the new football coach at Missouri.

"It may not be the easiest job for a year or two," the former Arizona State coach agreed, "but it offers long-range possibilities."

Devine, who guided the Arizona State eleven of Tempe to an unbeaten season and the national offensive leadership this fall, was given a three-year $15,000 contract by Missouri Wednesday.

He succeeded Frank Broyles, who moved to Arkansas after a year at Missouri.

Devine told Athletic Director Don Faurot of Missouri he would move to Columbia after the holidays to begin re-forming the football setup at Missouri and continue recruiting.

He said he would install the multiple offense at Missouri, compared to the split T and quick kick emphasized by Broyles. He admitted he was a "lover of touchdowns" and said he will "attempt to incorporate all the good features of all offenses" at Missouri.

Devine had been at Arizona State three seasons, compiling a 27-3-1 record. He was an assistant at Michigan State, which uses the multiple offense, for five years previous to that. He played his college ball at the Duluth branch of the University of Minnesota, is 33, married, and father of five children.

Devine said he will ask three of his assistants at Temple, to accompany him to Missouri. They are backfield coach Tom Fletcher, line coach Frank Kush and end coach Al Onofrio.

Three Missouri assistants were asked to stay on the staff. They were Clay Cooper, Harry Smith and John Kadlec. Cooper has been in charge of Missouri recruiting for several years.

Illinois Whips Rice, 85-82, in Cage Thriller

By United Press

There's fresh new evidence today that the best way to stay out of trouble in college basketball is to stay out of the other fellow's back yard.

Only three of the nation's top dozen teams were in action Wednesday night and two of them lost — on their rivals' courts. Unranked Wichita whipped 10th-rated UCLA, 83-68, at Wichita, Kan., and Illinois downed Rice, 85-82, in a thriller at Champaign, Ill.

The loss was the first for UCLA but the third in five games for Rice which is rated 12th in the country.

At the same time, ninth-ranked Maryland had matters all its way on its College Park, Md., walling Navy, 88-58, for No. 5 in a row.

And rugged Louisville whipped Marquette, 73-65, at Louisville, Ky. Wichita threw up a tight defense in the second half to overcome a 41-34 halftime deficit and score its fifth victory in six games. Wichita went ahead of the Pacific Coast Conference title contenders, 62-61, on a free throw by Don Locke with seven minutes and 53 seconds remaining and never was headed thereafter. Wichita's Al Tate and UCLA's Ben Rogers shared scoring honors with 19 points each.

Don Ohi Scores 29 Points
Illinois, shaping up as a strong Big Ten contender despite the fact that it does not have a good big man, had a 45-41 lead over Rice at the half and was tied but never headed in the second half. It was a key win for the Illini because they proved they could beat a team with a big man.

Rice's key man was 6-foot, 10-

Sophs Charlie McNeil and Al Bunge starred as Maryland remained unbeaten with its easy triumph over Navy. McNeil had 22 points and Bunge, a 6-8 "strong man," had 16 for the taller Terrapins.

Oklahoma City out-shot Wyoming, 23-11, from the foul line for the big difference in a 75-59 triumph: Virginia had four players in double figures as it downed Washington and Lee, 87-63; Vanderbilt romped over The Citadel, 90-61; Dartmouth beat Holy Cross, 69-64; Connecticut defeated Colgate, 82-61; and Niagara whipped Syracuse, 78-61, in other games.

Bull Dogs to Play West Frankfort, No. 2 in State, Here Friday Night

Fans Seeing Top
Teams in Action
At Davenport Gym

Certainly the basketball fans of this area are getting to see the class of prep basketball at Davenport gym this year with West Frankfort, ranked No. 2 in the state, the guest of the Bull Dogs Friday night.

Last week it was Herrin, No. 1 team in Illinois, who came to Harrisburg. Next week, in the Egyptian Holiday tournament at Davenport gym, both Frankfort and Mt. Vernon, ranked fifth in the state will participate. All three of these teams boast 5-0 marks at present.

Coach George Iubelt's West Frankfort Red Birds could be a better team than Herrin and local observers who saw the Tigers can make up their minds here tomorrow night.

Three Regulars Back

Three Red Bird regulars are back along with some fine reserves from last year's team that won 23 and lost 7, then bowed to Mt. Vernon in the West Frankfort sectional tournament.

Regulars back at Frankfort are Richard Britton, Francis Florian and Vlado Zavich. A husky starter in his fourth year as a regular is Florian, a great shot from the side. Zavich is a 6-5 senior center who hit .510 per cent from the field and who grabbed 269 rebounds last year. Probably best of the lot is Britton, 6-1 forward who knows how to drive and to jump. Last year Britton shot .560 and grabbed off 270 rebounds.

Other starters, who saw considerable action last year, are a couple of guards—Bob Podbevsek, 5-10, and Bruce Link, who is six feet even. A good reserve is Warren Barty, 6-2 junior who weighs 205 pounds.

After the Friday night game Harrisburg will travel to Centralia for a contest Saturday night. Both week-end contests are South Seven conference affairs.

Meanwhile the Harrisburg Bull Dogs, after a drubbing by Herrin, have bounced back to defeat Johnston City, 77-50, and Carbondale, 63 to 59. The Bull Dogs, short on height, have been using speed and fast ball handling to get in for baskets.

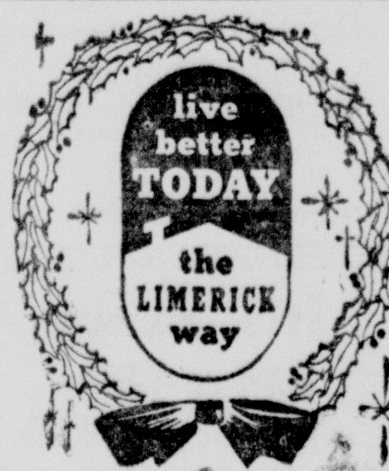

This week-end is a big one in the South Seven, with six conference games on the schedule. Friday night, besides Harrisburg Frankfort here, Centralia will be at Herrin and Benton will be at Marion, with Mt. Vernon entertaining Nashville at Mt. Vernon in a non-conference tilt. Saturday night Herrin will be at Benton, Mt. Vernon at West Frankfort and Harrisburg at Centralia.

Other week-end games:

Friday: Eldorado at Carrier Mills, Shawneetown at Galatia, Thompsonville at Ridgway, Chester at Carbondale, Murphysboro at Pinckneyville, Sparta at Cahokia, Mound City at Vienna, Metropolis at Rosiclare, Cobden at Grand Chain, Du Quoin at Anna, Mounds at Thebes, Dongola at Ulin, Joppa, at Karnak, McLeansboro at Johnston City, Tammis at Brookport.

Saturday: Anna at Eldorado, Murphysboro at Johnston City.

IPAC Reports Savings by Teen- Age Employment

SPRINGFIELD — A summer employment program for teen-agers permitted the state to save $104,000 in aid-to-dependent-child grants last summer, the Illinois Public Aid Commission report today.

The commission said about 1,200 teen-agers found employment under the program. The summer work plan made it possible for the commission to suspend or cancel 127 aid grants and lower others for families receiving assistance.

The program for summer work for children of families receiving assistance was started in 1952. Since then, the commission said, 7,602 youths have been employed during the summer months through the program.

Their total earnings, the commission said, made 1,153 families self-supporting during the summer months, and saved the state $611,000 in aid funds over the past six years.

Termites Spoil Holiday

HOLLYWOOD — Actress Peggy Webber, her husband and their two small children will spend Christmas in a motel. They sold their house several days ago and were ready to move into another home when it was found termites had moved in first. They couldn't move back to their old house, and the deal on the second one has been cancelled. "And we're not going to find another house on such short notice," she said.

Life is 'Pretty Good' for Danny Schmidt Family

ANDERSON, Calif. — Life is going along "pretty good" these days for the Danny Schmidt family.

Schmidt came home Aug. 12, 1955, after spending three years in a Red China prison camp to find his wife, Una, had married Alford Fine, a logger, in the belief Schmidt was dead.

At first, Una said she preferred Fine. Two weeks later she changed her mind and returned to Danny along with their two-year-old son, Danny Jr.

Schmidt, contacted in Anderson, Calif., said everything was "pretty good, I guess" now. He said he was working the "straight swing" shift at a plywood plant and attending school at Shasta Junior College in the day-time.

He and Una are the parents of one more child. The boy, Christian Joseph, was born on June 8.
